Oakenhurst Aircraft Services Ltd - Modern Slavery & Human Trafficking Statement

Last Updated: May 2026

Oakenhurst Aircraft Services Ltd is committed to conducting business ethically, responsibly, and with integrity. We recognise the importance of preventing modern slavery and human trafficking in all aspects of our business and supply chain activities.

Our Business:

Oakenhurst Aircraft Services Ltd is a UK-based aviation component maintenance, repair, and overhaul (MRO) organisation supporting airline, OEM, and aviation supply chain customers globally.

Our Commitment:

We are committed to ensuring that modern slavery, forced labour, servitude, and human trafficking do not occur within our business operations or supply chains.

We expect the same high standards from our suppliers, contractors, and business partners.

Our Approach:

To support this commitment, we:

- Operate policies and procedures designed to promote ethical business conduct
- Promote a respectful and professional working environment
- Seek to work with reputable suppliers and partners
- Maintain recruitment and employment practices aligned with UK employment legislation
- Encourage employees to raise concerns regarding unethical or inappropriate conduct

Supply Chain:

As part of our supplier relationships, we expect suppliers and business partners to comply with all applicable laws and regulations relating to labour standards and human rights.

Where appropriate, supplier performance and conduct may be reviewed as part of our ongoing business relationships.

Training & Awareness:

The Company promotes awareness of ethical conduct and appropriate workplace behaviours through management oversight and internal policies.

Continuous Improvement:

Oakenhurst Aircraft Services Ltd will continue to review and develop its policies, procedures, and supplier relationships to support ethical and responsible business operations.
